THE MANNER OF HIS DEATH

Determined by the Coroner's Jury.

He Died from a Gun-shot Wound at the Hands of James Mullar-key-Held for a Hearing.

At half past three yesterday afternoon Coroner Schultze began an inquest over the remains of John Platt, who was shot and killed Sunday evening by James Mullarkey. The jury was composed of Messars. J. A. Clyker, Anderson Vers. Isadore Henger, Fred Schaub, James A. Wagner, Joseph N. Weidner, John Druschel, Louis A. Bowwen, Frent.

He Died from a Gun-shot Wound thin. The audience was composed printer the class Mr. Hogan is reaching for, and the very people who need him most. There was a noticeable tendency on the part of the sudience to block up the sistes and doorway, while seats were still to be had in the front rows. This showed that the audience came from the masses who do not attend church, and who feel a timidity about being looked at, Mr. Hogan, however, did a great deal to make these people feel at home, of people who need him most.

After having heard the courrence and the statements of the physicians as to the autopsy held on the body of the dead boy, the jury prepared and signed the following verdict: "We find that John Platt came to his death by a gun shot wound in the bands of James Mullarkey to jail on a warrant sworm out by the dead boy's father, in which is charged with murder. The hearing will be held at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

The inquest was held at the home of the Platt's. The jury satiffs lower room, while in the room overhead, Drs. Wilson, Reed, Reed Baird and Engene Hidreth were holding an autopsy on the remains.

Michael Galligher, one of the boys who was with Mullarkey on Sunday, was the first witness called. His testimony was as follows, verbatim: "We met William Platt coming around the growth in man by examples from the coad. Mullarkey soil 'Hore's a ride in for me.' Mullarkey followed the wagon and put his hand into the wagon and had it he gun resting on the tail-gate. Platt reached back with the whip and the gun was discharged. Platt fell back in the wagon. I was half a square away and could not hear them talking. I could see them; we were on the same, level road. It was where they are building a bridge half a mile from here. We were near Moore's house and Speer's brick-house. Mullarkey was on the ground with his left hand on the wagon and the gun in his right hand. I can't say whether Platt struck him or not. I heard nothing said; I was not close on book. Mullarkey had not tried to get into the wagon."

William Jancke, another of Mullarkey's companions was called. His story, was exactly the same, except not quite so full in detail. Whose Reputation is Shady.

HIRAM 'KIRKHART'S FATE.

Bad Woman Shoots Him when He Visits Her-The Sunday Afternoon Occurrence that Has Stirred up Watzel County.

Another shooting scrape has occurred in Wetsel county, and according to the latest reports, the result will probably be fatal. Hiram Kirkhart, a young farmer, aged about 23, is the name of the man who is so seriously wounded that his friends fear for his recovery, and a widow named Butler, aged 42, is the one Rev. Dr. Cushing was on hand again, who fired the shot. The shoeting oc curred Sunday afternoon at the home of Widow Butler, which is located about five miles back of New Martinsville in Proctor district. The particulars as learned at this end, are as follows: At a late hour Saturday night Kirkhart is said to have visited the home of the Widow Butler and endeavored to gain admis sion, which was denied him. The some and endeavored to gain admission, which was denied him. The reports about Mrs. Butler's reputation are that it is of a rather shady character, and further, it is said that she has been in the habit of receiving male company late at night. This explains Kirkhart's presence at her house Saturday night, and the fact that he failed to gain admission is explained by the statement that Mrs. Butler had another man in the house.

Kirkhart shally left Mrs. Butler's premises. Sunday afternoon he reappeared on the scene, accompanied this time by two or three friends. It is said that there had been talk of shooting indulged in by both Kirkhart and Mrs. Butler the night before. There was certainly little opportunity for anything of this kind on this occasion, for as Kirkhart walked up to the house, the door suddenly opened and Mrs. Butler fred two or three shots at him from a 3S calibre revolver. One of the bullets struck him in the left side making a very ugly and dangerous wound. The wounded man was taken away by his friends, and is receiving the best of care, but as before stated, the reports are that the chances for his recover are slim. Mrs. fore stated, the reports are that the Butler has been placed under arrest. The affair has created much excitement

A Fast Western Flyer.

Mr! James Oglebay, of Kansas City, formerly of this city, is the pround possessor of a horse that is being looked upon by the leading horsemen of the West as a wonder, and as one that may yet develope into something phenomenal. The animal is called "Sedalis Boy;" he has been on the track but six weeks, yet in that time he has won the first money, $1,000, in the 2:27 class trot at Terre Haute, and in the 2:27 class trot at Terre Haute was a very exciting and close contest, but the new horse showed the blood that was in him, and finally won. With longer training on the track there is every reason to believe that the horse will acquire a very low recerd. A Fast Western Flyer. Oil Men Enroute for Mannington.

Since last Friday evening there has not a passenger train left here over the main line of the B. & O. that has not carried a delegation of oil men from the Washington oil field, all hurrying forward to the new Mannington and Monongalia county fields, drawn there by the reports about the Jackson well at Mannington and the developments on Doll's run.

Among those who went out yesterday were John D. France, L. M. Parker and H. Joe McGivern, three well known scouts and oil men, who have been making the Taylorstown district of the Washington field their headquaters of late. They stated that with the Taylorstown field playing out they had cast about as to where they should next locate, and come to the conclusion that the new oil field opening up in West Virginia was the best for them and can get to the new field in time to get in on the ground floor. Mr. France is understood to hold several leases in different parts of Marion county, and is enthusiastic over the outlook.

Every seat was occupied and by the time the curtain went up there was not another inch of standing room to be had. It was a well pleased audience judging from the frequent outbursts of hearty applause. The bill for the evening was the operatic burietta, "The Crysta Shpper," the story of Cinderella and her wonderful experience told in song and nonsensieal rhyme, and containing much to please and entertain. The Sisters did well and won many enchores with much to please and entertain. The Sisters did well and won many enchores with theirsongs and dances. Miss Goldie Rinehartshows wonderful improvement since she was last seen here, having developed into quite an attractive and versatile actress. There will be a change of programme at every performance. Seats can be reserved at Weir's.

At the Opera House next Saturday evening Roland Reed, a comedian whose ability is everywhere acknowledged, will appear in "The Woman Hater," taking the title role. The play is one in which an old bachelor, professing hatred of women, but really susceptible to their charms, becomes simultaneously engaged to marry three widows. The theme is old enough, and the manner of the man's ensuing troubles, if not exactly the matter, can be easily imagined. The incidents are brisk and comical, however, and they are wrought out with much wit and humor. There is nothing you want necessary to furnish your home from cellar to attle that we haven't got—There is no business accommodation that you may want that we will not most cheerfully give.
